

RABBI'S MESSAGE

Shalom Temple Beth Sholom,

What a great way to welcome cold February but to begin with the first of the two “Exchange Pulpit” with Reverend Kenneth Blyth and the good people at the St Armands Key Lutheran Church, Sunday, February 1. Our theme this year is “peace/shalom,” and I will be sharing the Jewish perspective on shalom, as Reverend Blyth will do from a Christian perspective on Shabbat morning, the 21st of February.

Peace is the goal of every aspect of Judaism, from the way we speak, from the way we respect our fellow human beings, from the way that we set every goal and action of our entire being. It is not enough in our tradition to refrain from acting, as we are commanded to rodef shalom, to pursue peace each day. We, Jews, finish every Amidah with sim shalom, may God bring peace, kindness, love, devotion, and Torah each minute. We recognize that shalom is the greatest gift that God has given to us. We finish each “Kaddish” (Shalem, Yatom, D’rabbanan) with the hope that God, who dwells in Heaven in Peace will bring His peace to us, to the entire house of Israel, and to all humanity.

Oseh shalom bimromav hu ya’aseh shalom aleinu v’al kol Yisrael.

We say Shabbat SHALOM, to stress that the very essence and purpose of our Shabbat is to LIVE PEACE, not think about it, but to LIVE it.

How do we live in peace, and what is the state of peace in our lives?

1) Rodef Shalom: we first pursue peace among each other, which means we are compelled in our tradition to put away the anger, the temper, the hatred, the grudges, and to uplift our fellow, in our families and in our relationships. Before we dismiss the dignity of the other, before we express anger, perhaps we should all ask ourselves: How are my actions leading to a more peaceful world, congregation, people, nation?

2) We hope there will be peace for Israel, our Jewish state, and we can be a part of bringing greater peace to the nation, externally and internally. There is no nation on earth that longs for peace more than the Israelis, for they have been living in a condition of war for too long and yearn for the day when their neighbours will lay down their arms and choose, instead of terror tunnels, missiles, nuclear weapons, and terroristic activity, to live in peace with Jews, with all Israelis. We also pray that Israelis themselves will stop the internecine strife that has too often ripped the nation apart. The unity after October 7, 2023, must continue because, through peace, no enemy can ever hope to defeat our people.

And we can contribute to Israel, visit Israel, learn about Israel each day, and leave a message of shalom to our brothers and sisters there each day.

3) We hope and pray there will be peace for all the Jewish people, secular and religious, the core platform of the Masorti/Conservative movement. Why do Jews fight each other? There is nothing more painful than to witness the disdain that so many Jews have expressed for the other—we cancel, we walk out, we remove respect, and the cost is always great—sinat hinam, needless hatred is the reason, according to our Rabbis, why the 2nd Temple fell to the Romans in 70 CE.

4) We need peace in our beloved United States of America. Cancel culture is growing rapidly. We increasingly are not listening to or respecting fellow Americans who disagree with us. Palpable hatred, in language and action, is splitting Americans more and more from each other, and it is leading to violence, a removal of respect for law and order, and a distrust of the sacred institutions of our nation. May this year, the 250th year of celebration for the foundation of our nation on July 4, 1776, lead to a renaissance of true shalom for our troubled nation.

5) And peace for all humanity: it's a mess out there. The rise of antisemitism, in particular, from Ireland, to London, to Paris, to the four corners of the earth, is merely a barometer of the state of our civilization. What starts with the Jews never ends with the Jews. I just hope and pray that the hatred that is gripping so much of the world will not lead to devastating wars. May this year be the end of the horrific Ukraine-Russia conflict, the starvation campaign in Sudan, the attacks against the Christians of Nigeria, freedom for the people of Venezuela, an end to the ruthless Islamic Republic of Iran, and the beginning of an era of peace.

The prophets speak of a messianic peace that will one day become reality in our world, which will begin according to Isaiah (chapter 11) with the Redemption of the Jewish people in Zion/Jerusalem, as Jews will return to Eretz Yisrael from the four corners of the earth. And when peace reigns for the Jewish people, that will be followed by peace for all humanity.

May the world know war no more.

Our classes with Reverend Blyth and the Lutheran church resume on Tuesday, February 10 and 17, 2:00 pm, with Reverend Blyth coming to TBS to address the congregation on Shabbat morning, February 21.

Reverend Danny Preston, in honor of Black History month, will be our honored guest on the bimah February 7th.

Again, my sincere appreciation to so many of you who have expressed your support for your rabbi. You are so amazing and filled with chesed, kindness and love.

Shalom...Peace...let's bring that gift into our lives each precious moment of life.

Rabbi Stuart Altshuler

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

January was an exciting month! We were able to celebrate the Bar Mitzvah of Israel Carrillo. And what a beautiful, inspiring job he did! His family deserves kudos for a wonderful celebration. And Israel's Bar Mitzvah closely followed Adilina Blanche's wonderful Bat Mitzvah in December. How lucky we are.

We are also so fortunate to have so many knowledgeable members. Look at all the participants in our Sisterhood and Men's Club Shabbats we just had in January. These wonderful lay leaders demonstrate their knowledge regularly, and it was wonderful to see them lead services together. Of course, both weekends coincided with Rabbi candidate visits based upon the candidates' availability, but this was our chance to show off our lay leaders' depth.

The congregation had the opportunity to meet our first two Rabbinic candidates in January. As of this writing, we are still hearing from other possible candidates, so it's possible we'll have more interviews going forward. The committee has been very pleased with the interest we've received and the quality of the applicants. Stay tuned for new announcements as they come out.

It's very important that we make the candidates feel as welcome as possible. Feedback from as much of our congregation as possible on each candidate is critical. The search committee depends on that feedback for its decision-making and recommendation to the Board. Please let us hear from you promptly after each candidate.

Please pay attention to the calendar as we have lots of interesting programs happening all the time. In February, Rabbi Altshuler has several events with Reverend Blyth in addition to his regular classes: a Pulpit switch as well as their G-d's Family Interfaith classes at both TBS and the St. Armands Key Lutheran Church. If you've never heard Reverend Blyth speak, this is a real treat.

We're gearing up for our Centennial Year. We have a number of events to recognize and celebrate our anniversary. These include our historical panel discussion led by Eric Faerber, a special Centennial Shabbat to celebrate our long-term members, and, on January 9, 2027, our gala at the Ora. These events don't happen by themselves. They take volunteers, especially for the Ora event. Please reach out to Josh Mellits or me to step up. Let us know your interest and the area you'd like to volunteer for. The more volunteers we have, the easier it will be for all.

See you in Shul!

CANTOR'S MESSAGE

Shalom Haverim,

As a kid, I loved going to Synagogue, and when we went while there was a holiday, it meant that there was more for me to learn about in terms of what services we have. There always seems to be one holiday that doesn't get enough attention in our circle, Tu Bishvat. Tu Bishvat, which falls on the 15th of Shvat, is the holiday in which we celebrate the New Year of the trees. This tends to stem from the fact that there really isn't a set liturgy in our service for it. It is truly a shame that this is the case, because Tu Bishvat is really an important holiday, especially for our youth. If nothing else, Tu Bishvat serves as a reminder that we have a responsibility to maintain our world, not just from a people-to-people standpoint, but in the respect all living things are valuable, including plant life.

There is a phrase in our liturgy from Psalm 104, the Psalm for Rosh Chodesh that shows up in quite a few different places in our liturgy;

מְהִרְבּוּ מַעֲשֵׂיךְ | יְהֹוָה קָלֵם בְּחִכָּמָה עֲשֵׂית מְלָאָה הָאָרֶץ קְנִינָה:

“How many are the things You have made, O ETERNAL One; You have made them all with wisdom; the earth is full of Your creations.”

I always find this excerpt from Psalm 90 to be an incredible ode to everything around us, and it can be said about anything. The ocean, the sand, and of course, the trees. I remember a time when I went to the beach on a day off in the summer. The weather was in the low 90s, there were no clouds in sight, and the sun was setting. I was swimming in the waters, and all I could think about was that phrase from Psalm 104, and I said it as I was in the ocean. It was one of those moments when the world slowed down, and I was able to be in the moment and appreciate what amazing things God created.

That is the essence of Tu Bishvat, the idea that there are so many wonderful things in the world to enjoy, and our trees are a part of this equation. As we celebrate Tu Bishvat this year, let us be reminded that our world is precious, and if we wish to protect it, we will appreciate our world for the gifts and wonders it beholds. From the oceans, to the sky, and to the trees. Let us all take a moment to stop and look around.

TBS SISTERHOOD NEWS

Our Annual Sisterhood Shabbat took place on Saturday, January 31, 2026. We were honored to share the morning with Rabbi Aaron Benson, our visiting Rabbi. Many thanks to Mara Winn for coordinating all of our participants, and a special thank you to all of the women who participated in the service. Mazel tov to Paula Rothman, our 2026 Woman of Achievement. Paula has served as Sisterhood Treasurer for the past 4 ½ years and keeps our checkbook balanced. Paula also coordinates our weekly Torah readers for our Shabbat morning service. We were thrilled to be able to honor her contribution both to Sisterhood and TBS.

February and March are really busy months for our Sisterhood. On February 4th, we will have our 2nd Annual Tu B'Shevat-inspired lunch. Our speaker will be Jackie Leboutz, the Chemicals in the Environment Agent at UT/IFAS Extension Sarasota County. She will speak about the importance of pollination and the contribution butterflies make. Julie Friedman and Martha Sherman will prepare a lunch reminiscent of an old-fashioned picnic.

Our 3rd Annual Sisterhood Game Day is scheduled for February 12, from 10:00 A.M.-2:00 P.M. Bring your mah jongg set, playing cards, Scrabble games, and all of your friends. As always, we'll prepare a delicious lunch, and thanks to Maddy Freshwater, we have lots of gift cards for our special drawing.

Our signature event is our Torah Fund Day of Study and Luncheon on March 18. We're excited to welcome back Rabbi Mimi Weisel as our speaker, and we will be honoring Evie Mitchell with our Light of Torah Award. Invitations to this special event should be arriving in your mailbox soon.

LAPTOP DONATION DRIVE FOR AREA FOSTER KIDS

The Children's Guardian Fund (CGF) and Sarasota Technology Users Group (STUG) have teamed up to collect used computer laptops. With a long history of recycling and safety, the STUG sanitizes the hard drive with a seven-step process that protects the donor's information. They then refurbish the laptop and install software that is typically required for school. Refurbished laptops are distributed to area students in foster or state care through the CGF and the Guardian ad Litem Program.

Temple Beth Sholom is proud to support this special program to help local families in need. Please contact Troy Jones (troy@tbssrq.org) for more information.

Temple Beth Sholom Sisterhood Invites you to join us on Wednesday, March 11 at 1:30 pm for the Tale of the Allergist's Wife

BY CHARLES BUSCH

When Marjorie Taub, a middle-aged Upper West Side doctor's wife who is devoted to mornings at the Whitney, afternoons at MOMA, and evenings at BAM, plunges into a mid-life crisis, the only thing that shakes her out of her lethargy is the reappearance of a fabulous, fascinating and somewhat mysterious childhood friend. An uproarious, intelligently funny and satirically relevant comedy which ran for 777 performances on Broadway. Directed by Gus Kaikkonen.

We would like to thank our Visionary Society members who help support our Temple Beth Sholom by paying more than the required dues each year. This is an annual program where members pay an additional $1,000 to $15,000. Members of this program help to bridge the financial gap for our fellow congregants who are unable to afford the temple's full dues. We invite you to consider joining this group if you are able.
