RABBI'S MESSAGE

It is always interesting to think about when I am writing my Messenger article and when it will be read. Right now, we are in the middle of celebrating Sukkot and by the time you read it, it will be November, and we will be gearing up for Thanksgiving. I enjoy thinking about these two holidays together because, at the core, they are very similar. Just as Thanksgiving is an opportunity for us to reflect on the things we value in our life and express thanks for them, Sukkot is also a holiday of thanks. It was celebrated by the Israelites following the harvest, as they brought offerings of thanks to the temple in Jerusalem.

In this mode, I would like to take time to reflect on the things we have to be thankful for at Beth Sholom and to thank the many, many, many people who help make them a reality. I would like to begin by noting the full, wide range of programming we have this season. It is remarkable to see the building hopping on a regular basis with Hebrew classes, yoga lessons, committee meetings, cooking workshops, prayer services, Torah study, book reviews, and much much more. Thanks for all these activities goes to our programming chair, Eric Faerber and the many committees that contribute: Continuing Education, Idelson Library, Fundraising, Membership, Ritual, Men's Club & Sisterhood. You all play a major part in providing the full range of programming to our community.

I would also like to express thanks for the support that the committees get from our synagogue staff. Nancy Hendricks leads a small but mighty team of dedicated and hard-working individuals. Jaci Babin in the front office, Kelly Nester - Rabbinic Assistant, Susan McCann - Catering Coordinator, Duane Rushing - Facilities Manager, and Lex Calaguas - Marketing and Communications Coordinator, all play roles beyond their titles to ensure the smooth running of Beth Sholom. They put in long hours (even on their days off) and graciously share their talents with our community.

Thanks also goes out to those who have supported the congregation financially. It is a blessing for us to be in a position to put on the kind of programming we have for this year. A dream cannot be realized if we don't have the resources to carry it out. From kiddish & oneg sponsors to the sponsors of our Azi Schwartz concert, Kol Nidrei appeal contributors, Visionary Society members, as well as all those who make meaningful contributions all year long, I thank you for all of your support.

There is so much to be thankful for. Included in my list is also all the people who participate in all that goes on at Beth Sholom. You come with smiles and a friendly, positive attitude. You look to learn and be engaged in spiritual services. You offer to help and encourage those planning the programs. You bring friends and serve as ambassadors for our kehillah. To everyone involved at Beth Sholom, Thank you!

President's Message

Where has the time gone? The High Holidays and Sukkot are over, our services were beautiful and spiritual, it's November, and the season has already been underway for a few weeks.

If you were at the Temple during the holidays, I hope you had the opportunity to stop in to see the newly refreshed chapel. It is beautiful and will enhance the spiritual experience of all who use it. I would like to thank the committee that worked on the Chapel Project led by Toby Simon and our House and Grounds Chair, Elliott Corn. I would also like to thank TBS member and interior designer, Patty Schimberg, for her dedication to the project.

One more thing about the chapel project – there are a few additional items we would like to do that could not be done within the approved budget, such as new Torah holders, new chairs on the Bimah, refinishing of the Torah reading table and Bimah lecterns, and refinishing of the parquet flooring in the chapel foyer. If anyone would like to donate to accomplish any of these items, please let Toby, Elliott, or me know.

Our programming for the 2019-20 season is already underway. We have published a beautiful brochure containing descriptions of all the programming currently on the calendar. Thank you to our newest staff member, Lex Calaguas, Marketing & Communications Coordinator, for putting this piece together.

I would like to call attention to one of the programs coming up very soon featuring Dr. Kenneth Stein, Professor of Contemporary Middle East History, Political Science, and Israeli Studies at Emory University in Atlanta. Since 2007, Professor Stein's Center for Israel Education has trained over 2,500 Jewish teachers how to teach about Israel and has impacted over 400,000 Jewish young people in North America. Professor Stein will speak four times from Shabbat evening on November 8 through Sunday breakfast on November 10. Details on the topics of each speech are in the Program Booklet and on the TBS website.

Edith and I have known Dr. Stein for 15 years since we sponsored his attendance as a scholar at Fairfield University in Connecticut. I guarantee that you will come away from this wonderful weekend with new insights into Israel, the Middle East, anti-Semitism and BDS on university campuses in the United States. Dr. Stein's visit to TBS is being underwritten by Larry and Debbie Haspel.

There are so many other great programs coming up after the Stein lectures that I hesitate to try to mention them all here. Please consult the Program Brochure for dates and times of these fascinating events.

Switching gears to fund raising, I am pleased to report that we have achieved our goal for this year's Kol Nidre appeal. However, less than 50 percent of the congregation has made a gift as of this date. On Kol Nidre night, in my address to the congregation, I said that if we made the goal, I would propose to the board that contributions received after October 9 would be used for two capital projects — repaving the parking lots and more security for our building. The board has approved my proposal, and we are already depositing recently received gifts in a fund for those projects. If you have already given, THANK YOU. If you have not yet made your 2019 Kol Nidre gift, please do so now. Let's see if our community can demonstrate solidarity and achieve 100 percent participation in the campaign.

Finally, an update on the Cantor Azi Schwartz Concert at the Sarasota Opera House on January 12, 2020. The Opera House is SOLD OUT. This TBS project has received overwhelming support from our TBS community and the wider Sarasota community. Thank You to Ros Mazur and the Mazur family for conceiving of this program and underwriting it financially in memory of Len Mazur. Thank You to our Concert Committee Co-Chairs: Saranee Newman, Fran Cohen and Edie Chafetz. Thank You to our Sponsors and all who have bought tickets for your support.

LIFE & LEGACY SPOTLIGHT

Esme and Eric Faerber

It didn't take long for Esme and Eric Faerber to become fully involved at Temple Beth Shalom. They moved to Sarasota in 2016, after visiting a friend and fell in love with the area, weather and especially the local arts and cultural offerings. Originally from Johannesburg, South Africa, they spent 30 years in Philadelphia where they both had distinguished careers before moving to Florida.

Esme was the first female to obtain an MBA from the University of Witwatersrand in Johannesburg. She also is a CPA and was a professor and department chair of Business and Accounting at several colleges. She is the author of numerous books on investments, stocks and bonds. Her books have been translated into Chinese and Arabic. As a teen in South Africa, she was a junior tennis champion and won a gold medal at the Maccabi Games in Tel Aviv. She went on to become an accomplished professional athlete. She was the Junior French Open tennis champion, reached the quarterfinals of women's doubles and mixed doubles at Wimbledon, and was a doubles semi finalist at the French Open. She also represented South Africa in the Federation Cup and was part of the Virginia Slims tennis circuit with Billie Jean King.

Eric went to medical school at the University of Witwatersrand and served as senior radiologist at Baragwanath Hospital in Soweto (currently the third largest hospital in the world). He specialized in pediatric radiology and neuroradiology in Boston and subsequently served as Department director of radiology and President of the medical staff at St. Christopher's Hospital for Children, in Philadelphia. He was a past president of the Pennsylvania Radiologic Society and is currently president of one of the national pediatric radiology societies. He has received many honors and awards over the course of his medical career, and has been inducted into the national AOA Honor Medical Society. He is also an author and editor of numerous books on pediatric radiology.

Eric and Esme grew up with traditional Jewish backgrounds. Esme's grandparents were of Lithuanian and Sephardic background. Eric's grandparents were originally from Latvia and Lithuania. Both their parents were born in South Africa. Eric's grandfather, who had been vice-president of his congregation, instilled in Eric a deep sense of Jewish values. Both went to Hebrew School, had strong Jewish identities and were regularly observant growing up in South Africa. While in Philadelphia they belonged to a Conservative Congregation so it was only natural that they would check out TBS when they arrived in Sarasota. They were immediately engaged and appreciated the warm reception they received at TBS. When asked about their TBS experience, they said: "We found the prayers, rituals, and melodies very similar to what we experienced in South Africa. Being part of TBS has contributed significantly to our Jewish experience and identity."

Esme and Eric are doers. Soon after becoming members they "got involved". Esme serves on the TBS Finance Committee, co-chaired the TBS Sisterhood Program Committee and is currently Treasurer of Sisterhood. Eric is the TBS Program chair and Historian. He is a board member of the Men's Club. He has been on the TBS board of directors for the past two years and currently serves as Vice President. When asked why they have committed to participate in the TBS Life and Legacy Program, they said: "We live in a global and domestic environment that is increasingly anti-Semitic. Maintaining TBS as a Conservative Synagogue for years to come is not only important to us but is also important for future generations. Being part of the Life and Legacy Program is part of our way of expressing our Jewish identity and concern for Jewish life."

Martin Buber: A Life of Faith and Dissent Reviewed by Harold Halpern

Wednesday, Dec. 4, 1:15 pm

In this book written by Paul Mendes-Flohr, faith and dissent are the dominant themes in Buber's Jewishness. For Buber being a Jew required faith in God and an obligation to dissent when that faith was distorted. The book explores Buber's faith and dissent in his own words, including his courage in the face of Naziism and his approach to Zionism.

AN EVENING IN THE SHTEL

by Al Treidel

The entire Sarasota/Manatee Jewish community is invited to take a step back into time! Join in a Pre-Chanukah Celebration as we enjoy a fun-filled evening of nostalgia on Sunday, December 15, from 7:00-9:00 pm for an Evening in the Shtetl – A Pre-Chanukah Celebration!

We will return to turn-of-the-century Eastern Europe and relive the lives of our grandparents and those who came before them. Join in an evening of music with a live Klezmer band. Allow your palate to come alive with the tastes of latkes and many of the special desserts that were so common in the Shtetl and were often served in many of our grandparents' homes. Almost like magic, two storytellers will appear to share Shalom Aleichem tales in a Reader's Theater format. Their authentic Yiddish accents and genuine Shtetl garb will add much to the flavor of the evening. Attendees will sit cabaret style. Bring your friends and clap to the music and feel free to get up and dance while we spend a couple of hours in a world of our beloved ancestors. Space is limited and a very large crowd is expected that evening.

The two Yiddish story tellers are Rita Mazur and Alice Cotman. Rita has performed in numerous musicals and cabarets both locally and internationally. Having been active in children's theatre, Mazur has more recently been an integral part of Venice Theatre's "Troupe in a Trunk" which brings theatre to thousands of elementary school children each year. Alice Cotman has been acting for the last 20 years at the Sarasota Players and Manatee Players Theatres. More recently she has created the script and performed in "The Bintel Brief," a reading of letters of Jewish immigrants in America. Providing the music for the evening will be the group known as Klezmania. Klezmania began to perform in 2005. The group has a wide and eclectic background that enables them to bring both traditional and modern interpretations to their performances. Together, the group has chosen to stay in the original style of Klezmer music including waltzes, frailachs, and songs for the various Jewish holidays.

Register by Wednesday, December 11 and receive an early bird price of $12 per person. After December 11, admission will be $15 per person. Attendees may reserve a space either on-line on the Temple Beth Sholom website at templebethsholomfl.org/events or they may make a reservation in the TBS office. All reservations will need to be paid in advance to secure a place. Cash or checks will be accepted at the door (no credit cards please). This will be an evening that you will not want to miss.

Moving Pictures: Films About the Holocaust

With Dr. Andre Krauss

Elie Wiesel declared: "...just as no one could imagine Auschwitz, no one can now re-tell Auschwitz after Auschwitz." And yet, even before the cannons had fallen silent on the European battle fields, the cameras started rolling, documenting the unprecedented genocide. From documentaries to narrative feature films, few events in the history of mankind have been so widely explored and illustrated in film as the Holocaust. In this presentation, the audience will explore this unique film culture and review some problems specific to the Holocaust filmography. Andre Krauss holds doctorates in History of Art and Aesthetics and in Social Psychology.

“BRUNDIBAR” RETURNS TO SARASOTA

Brundibar is a translated Czech opera composed in 1938 by Jewish composer Hans Krasa with a libretto by Adolph Hoffemister and has an added prologue that speaks of HOPE and OPTIMISM for the future. It will be performed by the Sarasota Youth Opera at 7:00 pm on November 15 and 16 at the Sarasota Opera House. Brundibar, originally performed 55 times by children and adults in the Theresienstadt concentration camp during WWII, has been put into context with the added prologue that delivers a message about intolerance & hope appropriate for both children and adults.

With the help from the Florida Holocaust Museum, quotes from genocides in Cambodia & Rawanda, Civil War documents, material from the book written by Nobel Prize winning teenager, Malela Yousafsai, and oral stories from children ages 8-18 who appeared in the Sarasota Youth Opera production of 2015, a tapestry of words was woven for the prologue dealing with humanity's resistance to oppression and the transcendence of creativity!

Temple Beth Sholom has arranged for a block of tickets for the second performance on November 16, at $30 per person.

If you would like to purchase tickets for this performance please call Mr. Travis Rogers, Assistant Manager of Patron Services, at the Sarasota Opera House (941.328-1330) and please let him know that you are with the Temple Beth Sholom Group.

- Based on personal interviews after World War II and their incredible stories of how they served the Third Reich and lived to tell the tale

Shabbat Shmooze: An Interview with Sonia Fuentes November 16

Sonia Pressman Fuentes was born in Berlin, Germany, and came to the U.S. with her family, after nine months in Antwerp, Belgium, on May 1, 1934, to escape the Holocaust. She grew up in the Catskill Mountains of NY State and graduated as valedictorian from Monticello (NY) High School. She is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Cornell University and a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Miami (Florida) School of Law

She has been involved in women's rights since 1963, when she testified in Congress in favor of the passage of the Equal Pay bill on behalf of the ACLU. In 1965, she joined the General Counsel's office of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) as its first female attorney. She drafted one of the EEOC's earliest Digests of Legal Interpretations, its first guidelines on pregnancy and childbirth, and the EEOC's decision finding that airlines violated the law when they terminated or grounded stewardesses due to marriage or reaching the age of 32 or 35.

In November 1996, at a ceremony honoring the founders of NOW, Betty Friedan presented her with the Veteran Feminists of America Medal of Honor. On October 10, 1999, she was one of four recipients of the 1999 Women at Work Award of Wider Opportunities for Women given in recognition of her commitment to women's issues and leadership in the fields of law and business. Prior recipients included Jane Fonda, Katie Couric, Linda Ellerbe, and Hillary Rodham Clinton.

Ms. Fuentes lives in Sarasota, FL, where she is a feminist, activist, a writer, and a public speaker. She is the author of a memoir, Eat First--You Don't Know What They'll Give You, The Adventures of an Immigrant Family and Their Feminist Daughter. Ms. Fuentes will be interviewed by Barbara Sander, a leader of National Brandeis and an accomplished presenter. This is a schmooze that you will not want to miss!

Minyan Breakfast

Under the auspices of the Men's Club, a breakfast is served every Wednesday morning after the daily minyan. You can sponsor a breakfast, at relatively modest cost, to mark a special occasion - or simply to do something nice for your fellow congregants and others who attend the minyan.

Three styles of breakfast are offered. Sponsorship of the traditional Deluxe Breakfast - consisting of bagels, cream cheese, a tray of sliced vegetables, herring, coffee, tea, schnapps, and assorted pastries - is available at the modest cost of $54.

Also available is the Premium Breakfast, which provides all the delicacies included in the Deluxe Breakfast plus lox, at the economical price of $98.

The more elaborate Scrumptious Breakfast, which adds whitefish, an assortment of cheeses and fruits, and other items at special request, can be sponsored for only $150.

Catering is provided by Barry Abeshaus, Ben Berman, Len Berman, and Len Stein

To arrange the sponsorship of a Wednesday breakfast, please contact Ben Berman at (941) 355-2469

SISTERHOOD

Sheryl Glickman
Sisterhood President

It is a well-known concept in organizations that if members form relationships with other members, they are more likely to become invested in the organization. Ron Wolfson, a respected Jewish educator, has written an entire book about this idea which he calls “relational Judaism.” One of the key techniques used in forming these relationships is sharing personal information about your self with others. It tends to create a bond. Each participant knows something special about the other and has insight into their personal life.

TBS Sisterhood hopes to use this concept this month when we hold our first Memories Roadshow program. Everyone who attends is invited to bring a valued family heirloom and each participant will be given the opportunity to share information about their object and its importance in their life. When I worked as an Educational Director at various synagogues, one of my favorite family education programs was one that focused on Jewish ritual objects. Parents and children would look at a room filled with all kinds of Jewish objects and write down what they were used for. Each family was invited to bring a Jewish family heirloom and at the conclusion of the workshop each parent and child would share the story of their object. It was always a wonderful experience to learn something about the object and its place in their family history.

To add an additional layer to this special afternoon, we will be inviting women from the First Congregational Church and the Islamic Society of Sarasota-Bradenton to join us. This will afford us the opportunity to make new friends and learn about their family histories. I hope that everyone will join us for this unique event on November 13, 2019 at 2:00 PM. It promises to be a very special afternoon.

FASHION SHOW

2020 is the 50th anniversary of celebrating Earth Day and the tenth anniversary of our fabulous annual fashion show! During the event, the sophisticated ladies will be remembering Honey Salzman z"l whose ideas and hard work made this annual luncheon a reality.

This season's event will be held on Wednesday, March 25, 2020. Our beautiful models have already agreed to showcase fashions by Evelyn & Arthur, located downtown at 1480 Main Street, Sarasota. The event will feature both a silent auction and a drawing.

During our September meeting, we had two new enthusiastic members join our committee! If you are interested in working with fabulous sophisticated ladies to plan the luncheon, we welcome you. We will be soliciting for specific auction and drawing items; if you have something that may be of interest, please contact Hannah Puckhaber at hjpuck@comcast.net.

CDS STUDENTS ENJOY 'BAKING WITH BUBBIES'

Over the years, students at Hershorin Schiff Community Day School have been fortunate to enjoy a variety of programs with the Temple Beth Sholom Sisterhood. One such program, Baking with Bubbies, is proving to be particularly delicious.

Students at Community Day have participated in Temple Beth Sholom Sisterhood's Apple Muffin Project for a number of years. As part of the effort, students and Sisterhood members bake apple muffins to celebrate Rosh Hashanah – the Jewish New Year – and distribute them to elderly residents of Sarasota area nursing homes. This year, approximately 500 muffins were delivered, along with handmade New Year's cards, to help brighten the holidays for the recipients.

This year, the Baking with Bubbies program has been expanded to include monthly cooking or baking projects. The advanced Hebrew middle school students will focus their efforts on Israeli cuisine – including hummus, Israeli salad, ruggelach and more – in preparation for their trip to Israel in the spring. Other grades are also enjoying time making treats in the kitchen with the TBS Sisterhood this year.

For more information about Community Day School, which serves children of all faiths in preschool through eighth grade, visit the website at communityday.org or call (941) 552-2770.

"WE ARE SO PLEASED WITH THE EXPANSION OF THE BAKING WITH BUBBIES PROGRAM THIS YEAR. NOT ONLY DOES IT OFFER AN OPPORTUNITY FOR OUR MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS TO BECOME FAMILIAR WITH AND MAKE SOME OF THE FOODS THEY'LL ENJOY IN ISRAEL LATER THIS YEAR, IT ALSO TEACHES USEFUL SKILLS WHILE PROVIDING A WONDERFUL INTERGENERATIONAL OPPORTUNITY. WE ARE GRATEFUL TO THE TBS SISTERHOOD FOR THEIR ONGOING ENGAGEMENT WITH OUR STUDENTS."

SOCIAL ACTION

HIGH HOLIDAY FOOD PANTRY COLLECTION

Todah Rabah to all for their most generous donations. You've set a new record!!

SPARCC

We will resume collecting for SPARCC, Safe Spaces and Rape Crises Center, after the High Holidays. We have just learned that due to concern for our environment, Holiday Inn will discontinue offering the small hair care items we are accustomed to finding in our hotel rooms. Therefore, if you are traveling and they are still available, please collect what you can. The items most needed are travel-sized hair care products, lotions, deodorants, combs & brushes, small soaps, toothbrushes & toothpaste, and lip balm. Thank you to all our generous donors!

CASSEROLES TO THE SALVATION ARMY

Many thanks to the loyal contributors who have kept this program going through the off season! We did not deliver any casseroles during October due to the many holidays. Our first delivery after the holidays will be Wednesday, November 6. Please do NOT bring casseroles in during the holidays. Do plan to deliver your casseroles to the temple's Sisterhood/Men's Club freezer any time after November 1. If you would like to be part of this program and you need information and/or a recipe, just drop me an e-mail or give me a call.

PICTURE (RIGHT):

Thank you to our lovely volunteers! The first training session was a success. We have had a great turn out so far. However, they are still looking for volunteers (they could especially use more men) to join the Starfish Early Literacy Initiative: Book Buddies and Rockin' Readers!

BIMAH BASKETS

Did you know that half of your donation for Bimah Baskets goes to the two food pantries, All Faiths Food Bank and the Kosher Food Pantry? Since June, Sisterhood reports that $2,400 has been raised from Bimah Baskets. Half of that goes to Sisterhood for various projects and the other half is split with $600 going to All Faiths and $600 to JFCS Kosher Food Bank. Thanks to Evie Mitchell for handling the orders. Do continue to enhance your milestone events with a Bimah Basket!

STARFISH PROJECT PLANS WELL UNDERWAY

Wendy Katz reported that over 50 individuals have volunteered for the Fruitville Elementary Starfish Project. A training session was held just after Labor Day and everyone involved is quite excited with the project. There will be another training session this month so that our seasonal members can also get involved.

There are many ways to get involved with this program. If you are interested in any part of the program please contact Wendy preferably by e-mail so that she can contact you easily. Wendy's email is wjkatz@gmail.com, her phone number is 941-350-5654.

Archeology Series - Siblings:

The Development of Sectarian Judaism During the Second Temple Period series with Steven Stark-Riemer

Every Tuesday from Jan. 14 through Feb. 18 at 11:00 am

It is an oft-startling truth that the religions we know today as Judaism and Christianity do not stand in a parent-child, root-branch relationship, but one which better resembles that of siblings whose parent was Second Temple Judaism. In these six sessions, we will examine the beginnings of a phenomenon often called "Sectarian Judaism" that gave birth to these two "Siblings."
