RABBI'S MESSAGE

For the third month in a row, I sit down to write my Messenger article with thoughts of the High Holidays coming ahead. Since I have focused on preparations for the holidays and some holiday-specific rituals, I thought I would jump past Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur and look at Sukkot. It always seems to happen that while much time and energy is spent preparing for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, Sukkot always seems to sneak up and surprise us. Sukkot follows just four days after Yom Kippur and most of the time, one of those days is Shabbat. In that time the sukkah has to be put up and decorated and the holiday services and meals need to be prepared. Rest assured, we are keeping it in our sights but I almost always enter it feeling unprepared.

Maybe this is part of the power of Sukkot. Symbolism of the sukkah includes the idea of being unprepared. We leave the comfort of our strong and stable homes and head outside under the impermanent roof of the sukkah. While that's how the roof is supposed to be, we could have in the back of our minds, "If I were just a bit more prepared, I would have finished this roof and felt more secure." It makes me think of the Little Pig who makes a house out of sticks. It is strong enough to give the illusion of safety but still leaves the pig vulnerable.

Here is the message of Sukkot. No matter how prepared we are, we are always a bit vulnerable. There are always things we try to mitigate against but things happen. We leave the house with plenty of time to get somewhere but an accident on I-75 keeps us from getting there on time. We buy enough eggs for the week but a couple roll off the counter and we end up short. We should never be certain that things will work out 100% as planned.

So, we prepare for Sukkot. We have time scheduled Sunday morning, October 13, to put up the sukkah at Beth Sholom. Come and join us at 9:00 am to build or at 10:30 am to put up decorations. Sign up for Sippin' in the Sukkah with Sisterhood on October 17 and for the Sukkot Shabbat Dinner on October 18. And come dance with the Torahs on Simchat Torah, the evening of October 21. Of course, there are morning services for all the days of Sukkot as well.

Along with these preparations, also prepare yourself mentally to be able to handle the unexpected, the vulnerabilities that we don't see coming. Learn from the sukkah that you don't know what you don't know and you will be able to face the unknown with strength and fortitude.

President's Message

This year, Edith and I took a driving vacation to the Pacific Northwest. We drove from San Jose, California to the Portland, Oregon area. We were awestruck by the beautiful scenery as we drove along the Pacific coastline and through the magnificent redwood forests of that area. When we arrived in Astoria, Oregon, at the mouth of the beautiful Columbia River, it was Friday afternoon and I Googled to see if there were any synagogues where we might attend Friday evening services in that city of about 10,000 people. The answer that I received was that the nearest synagogues were between 60 and 110 miles from Astoria, in and around Portland. Indeed, it seems that from just north of San Francisco to the environs of Portland (about 700 miles) is a Jewish wasteland. There may be a few Jewish people in that area, as well as a few Chabads on scattered college campuses, but no organized Jewish communities. Were we happy to return to Sarasota and our wonderful TBS community? You bet we were. Isn't it true that regardless of how far and wide we travel, it's always great to be home and have your choice of where you live validated.

We are now in the midst of High Holiday season, and for the next several weeks TBS will be a beehive of activity. Our planning, which began months ago, will result, we hope, in a spiritual and peaceful experience.

I look forward to seeing you during this busy time. Please give me some feedback during this period on your High Holiday experiences at TBS. During the remainder of the year, I would also like to hear from you about how TBS has been doing in meeting the expectations you have for your religious home. Our synagogue leadership is continuously striving to improve the congregation's performance so we need your input.

In earlier articles, I have emphasized the importance to TBS of building our membership. In the month of August, we added seven new member units. With all of the growth in this part of Florida, I am sure there are many potential members in the community. Please help us by bringing their names to the attention of our new membership chairs, Carol Shatoff and Adele Tannenbaum. We would like to invite them to an event at the temple or a Shabbat dinner so they can get to know us.

In June, I wrote that we had a project underway to refresh the Chapel. I am pleased to announce that the project has been completed. When you are in the building over the holidays, stop in and see the beautiful improvements we have made. There are a few additional things that we would like to add to the project, such as Torah holders and bimah chairs. If anyone would like to donate such items, we would be grateful.

Our Kol Nidre appeal is progressing toward its goal. Please make a generous pledge to help us reach our target.

Before sitting down to write this message, I checked to see how we were doing on the sale of seats at the Opera House for our January 12, 2020, concert featuring Cantor Azi Schwartz. It looks like the theatre is virtually sold out. Should you be interested in attending and cannot find a seat, call or email one of our co-chairs and we will put you on a waiting list.

Shanah Tovah,
David Chaifetz

TORAH FUND

*"The Torah begins and ends with kindness:
God clothing Adam and Eve, and burying Moses." [Gen. 3:21, Deut. 34.6]
Talmud, Sotah 14a.*

This year's Torah Fund pin, Hesed, evokes thoughts of examples of Jewish acts of kindness, done without expectation of reward. Many Bible teachings come to mind: Abraham and Sarah welcoming strangers to their tent in the heat of the day; Abraham's servant's prayer for a wife for Isaac, answered by Rebecca who offers water to him and to his camels; and Ruth, who shows loyalty and kindness to Naomi, adopting her religion and peoplehood after Naomi has experienced great loss. The rabbinic tradition enacted many laws to formalize our commitment to kindness, making Hesed one of the three central pillars of Jewish life, as Shimon Ha Tzaddik taught: "The world rests on three things: on Torah, on service of God, and on deeds of kindness" (Pirkei Avot 1:2).

Through its Torah Fund Campaign, Women's League continues to provide support for the students of the Jewish Theological Seminary (New York), Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies (Los Angeles), Schechter Institute of Jewish Studies (Jerusalem), Seminario Rabinico Latino-americano (Buenos Aires), and now the Zacharias Frankel College (Potsdam, Germany). TBS Sisterhood is proud to be part of Women's League for Conservative Judaism, a network whose contemporary focus is helping its members acquire and maintain valuable leadership skills, essential organizational know-how, and a sophisticated appreciation of Jewish culture and learning. The Hesed pin for 5780 is a gift in recognition of your generous support to Torah Fund. Contact the Torah Fund Committee for further information.

NEW MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Our new member, Cate Blank, says meeting Becky and Jeff Miller through her sister was nothing short of divine providence, as she has been waiting for 54 years to become a Bat Mitzvah! Cate has been studying Hebrew for three years in Sarasota and was an active participant in the meaningful B'nai Mitzvot ceremony that took place on June 9th. She plans to further her learning in October with the Rabbi's new group. Temple Beth Sholom is the first synagogue Cate has joined, so it is quite meaningful to her. Although still a new learner, Cate says it was not a hard decision to join Temple Beth Sholom since she felt very much welcomed by our congregation.

Cate is originally from Bergen County, New Jersey. She has been a Florida resident for four years. Both her brother and sister live in Florida so she decided to see what the hubbub was about!

Cate is a 40-year veteran teacher and assistant principal. Cate loves children and substitutes in the Sarasota School System, keeping her hand very much in the educational process.

Cate has one son who is married and lives in North Raleigh, NC. Both her son and daughter-in-law are teachers, carrying on the legacy and dedication to the love of learning.

SOPHISTICATED LADIES FASHION SHOW

We had our first planning meeting in September. It was an opportunity for the members to select a specific function where they felt their talents would be most effective. As in the past, we have tried to have two members per assignment. There very well may be opportunities for you to contribute, such as becoming a member of the Committee.

Our first order of business was to announce that going forward, the Sisterhood Board approved a change in our name – the event will be known as the Honey Salzman z"l Sophisticated Ladies Fashion Show & Luncheon. It is our opportunity to honor her – she was the moving force creating this event. I will be letting you know what our theme will be next month, and which assignments still need to be filled, and possibly provide the opportunity to pair-up with another committee member.

Until then, be sure to save the date – Wednesday, March 25, 2020!

Sisterhood's Bimah Baskets

The baskets and flowers that beautify the Chapel and Sanctuary on Shabbat provide members and friends of Temple Beth Sholom with a way to celebrate noteworthy occasions: anniversaries, birthdays, yahrzeits, etc. among them. They are also a means to recognize the achievements of others. Moreover, by underwriting the cost of Bimah Baskets you will help the Sisterhood to contribute to the All Faiths Food Bank and the Jewish Family and Children's Service Kosher Food Bank as well as to support the Temple when special needs arise.

Donations are $54 for one basket and $90 for two baskets.

LIBRARY NEWS

Upcoming Book Reviews

All dates are Wednesdays and begin at 1:15 pm in the Chapel. Light refreshments will be served in the Chapel lobby at 12:45 pm and after the book review. No charge. The library has copies of all of these books.

November 6, 2019 – Jane Greenfield will review Witness: Letters From Elie Wiesel's Classroom by Ariel Burger, 2018 – In this profoundly hopeful, thought-provoking, and inspiring book, Burger takes us into Elie Wiesel's classroom, where the art of listening and storytelling conspires to keep memory alive. As Wiesel's teaching assistant, Burger gives us a front-row seat witnessing these remarkable exchanges in and out of the classroom. The act of listening, of sharing these stories makes of us, the readers, witnesses. Sponsored by the Idelson Library and Sisterhood in honor of Jewish Book Month.

December 4, 2019 – Harold Halpern will review Martin Buber: A Life of Faith and Dissent by Paul Mendes-Flohr, 2019 – Faith and dissent are the dominant themes in Buber's Jewishness. For Buber being a Jew required faith in God and an obligation to dissent when that faith was distorted. The book explores Buber's faith and dissent in his own words, including his courage in the face of Naziism and his approach to Zionism.

Film Matinees

Jan. 23 – "Sugihara: Conspiracy of Kindness" – 2005, 82 mins
Feb. 20 – "Live and Become" – 2005, 140 mins

All films are on Thursdays and begin at 1:15 pm in the Social Hall.

The November film is co-sponsored with the Jewish Federation of Sarasota-Manatee Just Reel Films; you must register in advance for this film - to register, go to jfedsrq.org/reell9. This film is free but you are encouraged to bring cans of food as well as new toys and school supplies, which will be donated to All Faiths Food Bank, Toys for Tots, and Title 1 Schools.

November 21, 2019 – Once In A Lifetime – 2014, 105 min, French (English subtitles) – An uplifting, fact-based story of a dedicated history teacher at a Paris high school who decides to challenge her apathetic, ethnically-diverse students with a unique assignment – a national competition on the theme of child victims of the Nazi concentration camps. Although the project is initially met with extreme resistance, a face-to-face encounter with a Holocaust survivor changes the students' attitudes dramatically. As they move forward with their project, these once-rebellious teens begin to see one another – and themselves – in a new light. This moving film demonstrates the enduring impact of the Holocaust in transforming future generations.

December 19, 2019 – Theodore Bikel: In The Shoes of Sholom Aleichem – 2014, 75 min. – An enchanting and inspiring documentary that weaves together the stories of two beloved Jewish icons: Sholom Aleichem, the great Jewish storyteller, whose prose portrays the true soul of the tragicomic Jewish shtetl; and Theodore Bikel: the legendary actor, singer, troubadour, Jewish activist, and interpreter par excellence of Aleichem's stories. Using vintage film interviews with celebrities, and footage of Bikel performances, this film is filled with laughter, tears, and music.

December, January, and February films - Refreshments, including popcorn, will be provided courtesy of the Men's Club; a question and answer session will follow the film; suggested donation is $3 for members and $5 for non-members; no need to preregister.

MAZEL TOV & MITZVAH by Rabbi Michael Werbow

There were no prerequisites and no synagogue membership required to take the class. Yet, 11 women felt drawn to deepen their understanding of Judaism. Their adult B'nai Mitzvah class began with them emotionally describing why they were taking the class and why they felt the call to bridge the gap to Judaism that they had felt for many years. And on June 9th, as part of Temple Beth Sholom's Shavuot service, each student shared, with the community, what the experience of celebrating a Bat Mitzvah meant to them. These sharing opportunities were emotional displays of how one can feel distant from Jewish tradition and then, through committed learning, come to feel close to it.

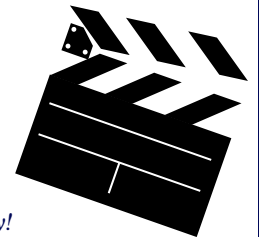

Throughout the year, these dedicated women not only studied a wide variety of Jewish topics, but they also became a community of learners. They began each class sharing personal updates and made new relationships with people who were previously strangers. They shared in each other's joy and supported each other through illness and sadness.

These women brought so much with them and their thirst for more has inspired others. Now, as they remain dedicated to their learning, all are welcome to share this experience at 9:30 am, Wednesday mornings. This year's class will answer the question: Why Didn't I Learn that in Hebrew School? Anyone who joins, and desires a B'nai Mitzvah ceremony, will have that opportunity next Shavuot. Remember, all are welcome at no charge.

Brundibar, a translated Czech opera, composed in 1938 by Jewish composer Hans Krasa, who was deported to Terezin, will be performed by the Sarasota Youth Opera at 7:00 pm on November 15 and 16 at the Sarasota Opera House. It was originally performed at least 55 times by children and adults in the Theresienstadt concentration camp during World War II and has been put into context with the help of an additional prologue which delivers a message about intolerance appropriate for both children and adults.

Temple Beth Sholom has arranged for a block of tickets for the second performance on November 16, at $30 per person, with the hope that many will join us in support of this stunning opera. It was last performed in 2015 at the Opera House garnering outstanding reviews!

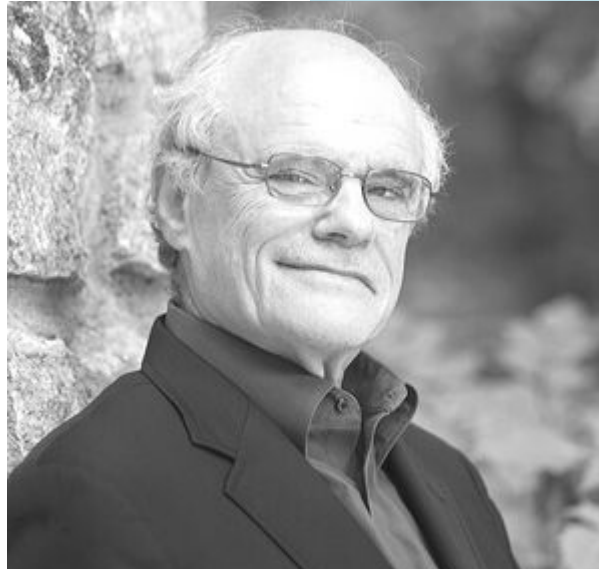

If you would like to purchase tickets for this performance please call Mr. Travis Rogers, Assistant Manager of Patron Services, at the Sarasota Opera House (941.328-1330) and please let him know that you are with the Temple Beth Sholom Group.

Also available is the Premium Breakfast, which provides all the delicacies included in the Deluxe Breakfast plus lox, at the economical price of $98.

The more elaborate Scrumptious Breakfast, which adds whitefish, an assortment of cheeses and fruits, and other items at special request, can be sponsored for only $150.

Catering is provided by Barry Abeshaus, Ben Berman, Len Berman, and Len Stein

SISTERHOOD

Sheryl Glickman
Sisterhood President

Rosh Hashanah 2019 is behind us and we now look forward to the remainder of the fall holidays. Sisterhood takes special pride in our Apple Muffin Project. Joan Braude spearheaded this. She recruited a large team of women to bake apple muffins. They were packaged beautifully in festive bags with honey and candies. Each bag contained a New Year's card handmade by the students at the Community Day School. Melissa Werbow was our contact for this and worked with the students to create the cards. The bags were delivered to senior facilities throughout the Sarasota community. This year the baking was done on September 10 and 11. Over 300 muffins were made.

Belle Probst was the assistant baker; Evie Mitchell manages the packaging. Susan Garbett contacted the various facilities; Susan McCann was our synagogue kitchen expert. There were many more who were involved, and we thank everyone for their work on this endeavor.

The next important date on our calendar is October 17, when we will join the SaBra Chapter of Hadassah in Sippin' in the Sukkah. We will meet in our beautiful synagogue sukkah for an informative and educational program lead by our own Melissa Werbow. We will enjoy lunch in the sukkah. Please RSVP by October 10th for this event. There is a nominal $10 charge that can be paid in advance or at the door.

Finally, although our Sophisticated Ladies Fashion Show is far in the future, our dedicated team of planners is already hard at work on this annual event. Hannah Puckhaber chaired the first committee meeting on September 12, and as always, this promises to be a spectacular afternoon. Mark your calendar well in advance for March 25, 2020, for our fashion show.

I wish everyone a Chag Sameach for the holidays that we will share in the coming month.

CDS WELCOMES FAMILIES BACK TO SCHOOL

by Sharon Kunkel

Hershorin Schiff Community Day School recently held its second annual Interfaith Back-to-School Shabbat Potluck Dinner, coordinated by the Parent Association (PA) of Community Day School and held at the Beatrice Friedman Theater on The Larry Greenspon Family Campus for Jewish Life. Even with intense evening storms and uncertainty about the eventual path of Hurricane Dorian, more than 150 attended the celebration.

CDS head of school Dan Ceaser and PA co-chairs Brenna Wilhm and Lindsay Sweeting welcomed the guests. Pre-dinner Shabbat prayers were led by Temple Emanu-El's director of education Sabrina Silverberg and Rev. Kelly Fitzgerald, who is the associate pastor of Family Ministry at First Presbyterian Church of Sarasota and a CDS board member.

During the event, families of all ages, religions, and backgrounds joined together to create a table overflowing with food; leftovers were donated to local organizations serving the hungry. Tables were decorated with colorful tablecloths and challah centerpieces, which guests enjoyed during the Shabbat prayers.

Right:

"Brenna and I wanted to find a way to create something with deeper engagement than a morning drop-off chat or a quick hello in the car line," said PA co-chair Sweeting.

The event debuted last year and was so successful it was difficult to accommodate the crowd that attended. Organizers were thrilled to be able to use the Friedman Theater, which offered ample space for guests to enjoy the meal and each other's company. Plans are already underway for next year's Interfaith Back-to-School Shabbat Potluck Dinner

"OUR GOAL WAS TO PLANT A SEED OF GENUINE CONNECTION AMONG OUR DIVERSE COMMUNITY DAY SCHOOL FAMILIES - WE FEEL THAT THE BEST CONNECTIONS IN OUR LIVES ALWAYS SEEM TO BEGIN OVER A MEAL SHARED TOGETHER. WE WERE THRILLED TO HAVE SO MANY FAMILIES, BOTH WELL-ESTABLISHED AND BRAND NEW TO THE SCHOOL, COME TOGETHER FOR A MOST ENJOYABLE EVENING."

SOCIAL ACTION

HIGH HOLIDAY FOOD PANTRY COLLECTION

We are looking forward to record-breaking donations of groceries for the All Faiths Food Bank and the Kosher food pantry. Please bring them in any time between Rosh HaShanah and Kol Nidre. After Yom Kippur, the bags will be brought to the food pantries. If you fill a bag with all kosher items, please label as kosher.

Please donate only non-perishable foods with good expiration dates.

Thank you to Joel Servetz and Tracey Wilson, manager at Winn-Dixie, for providing bags; to the Youth Group for all their help with attaching labels and organizing the apples and honey; and to Kelly for overseeing all the details. Thanks for your donations!

Joel Servetz, Rabbi Werbow, Susan Prohofsky, and David Chaifetz dropping off donated items with help from All Faiths Food Bank and JFCS' Kosher Food Bank

SPARCC

We will resume collecting for SPARCC, Safe Spaces and Rape Crises Center, after the High Holidays.

We have just learned that due to concern for our environment, Holiday Inn will discontinue offering the small hair care items we are accustomed to finding in our hotel rooms. Therefore, if you are traveling and they are still available, please collect what you can. The items most needed are travel-sized hair care products, lotions, deodorants, combs & brushes, small soaps, toothbrushes & toothpaste, and lip balm. Thank you to all our generous donors!

CASSEROLES TO THE SALVATION ARMY

Many thanks to the loyal contributors who have kept this program going through the hot summer. And special thanks to Iris Nahemow for delivering the casseroles in September when we were out-of-town. We will not be delivering casseroles during October due to the many holidays. Our first delivery after the holidays will be Wednesday, November 6. Please do NOT bring casseroles in during the holidays. Do plan to deliver your casseroles to the temple's Sisterhood/Men's Club freezer any time after November 1. If you would like to be part of this program and you need information and/or a recipe, just drop me an e-mail or give me a call.

STARFISH PROJECT PLANS WELL UNDERWAY

Wendy Katz reported that over 50 individuals have volunteered for the Fruitville Elementary Starfish Project. A training session was held just after Labor Day and everyone involved is quite excited with the project. There will be another training session in November so that our seasonal members can also get involved.

There are many ways to get involved with this program. If you are interested in any part of the program please contact Wendy preferably by e-mail so that she can contact you easily.

Wendy's email is wjkatz@gmail.com, her phone number is 941-350-5654.

BIMAH BASKETS

Did you know that half of your donation for Bimah Baskets go to the two food pantries, All Faiths Food Bank and the Kosher Food Pantry? Since June, Sisterhood reports that $2,400 has been raised from Bimah Baskets. Half of that goes to Sisterhood for various projects and the other half is split with $600 going to All Faiths and $600 to JFCS Kosher Food Bank. Thanks to Evie Mitchell for handling the orders. Do continue to enhance your milestone events with a Bimah Basket!

THANK YOU

On Monday, August 26, we again assembled a crew to unload sixty chairs from a delivery truck.

Despite an overly long wait for the truck, our patient crew attacked the chairs with great vigor to unload, move boxes, unpack, inspect, and stack the chairs in short order. We were able to share good fellowship during our three hour wait for the truck to arrive. We had bagels and coffee, well served by Len and Ben. Finally the truck arrived and the work began as the pallets of boxes came down.

By this time, it was hot and humid. But we were very organized in getting the boxes inside and unpacking them. The group was diligent to inspect the chairs for damage. After stacking them up, we packed up all the trash and cardboard for disposal. Special thanks to Duane Rushing for his strong back as well.

My deepest thanks to all those who volunteered to get this done as quickly as possible.

I'm blown away by the generosity of our members to step in when needed.
